

Ontario Fruit and Vegetable Convention

Field Vegetable Program, Feb. 23-24, 2011

Wednesday, Feb. 23

9:30 am	Vegetable Nematodes: With Special Reference to Soil Quality	Dr. George Bird, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan
10:30 am	Nitrogen source: does it matter?	Dr. John Lauzon, University of Guelph, Guelph, Ontario
11:00 am	Basic training: calcium and CEC	Christoph Kessel, OMAFRA, Guelph, Ontario
2:00 pm	New Challenges and Opportunities for Managing Cucurbit Disease	Dr. Meg McGrath, Long Island Horticultural Research & Extension Center, Cornell University, Riverhead, New York
2:30 pm	New products for the management of vegetable disease	Dr. Mary Ruth McDonald, University of Guelph, Guelph, Ontario
3:00 pm	Defining Sustainability for Specialty Crops	Dr. Steve Savage, Cirrus Partners, Evergreen, Colorado

Thursday, Feb. 24

9:30 am	Minor Use Program Update for Vegetable Crops	Jim Chaput, Provincial Minor Use Coordinator, OMAFRA, Guelph
10:00 am	Introducing QGU42 A New Fungicide Under Development For Several Vegetable Crops	René Petroski, Registration Product Manager, E. I. du Pont Canada Company
10:10 am	Presidio: A New Tool for Disease Control in Vegetable Crops	Beth Connor, Regulatory & Development Manager, Valent Canada, Inc.
10:20 am	Previewing ZAMPRO Fungicide: BASF's innovative new chemistry for control of late blight and downy mildew	Scott Hodgins, National Technical Sales Specialist - Specialty Products, BASF - The Chemical Company
10:30 am	Quintec – a new powdery mildew fungicide from Dow AgroSciences	Paul Foran, Horticulture and Eastern Crops Representative Dow AgroSciences Canada Inc.
10:40 am	Inspire – A New Fungicide for Fruit and Vegetables	Brady Code, Technical Field Manager, Syngenta Crop Protection Canada, Inc.
10:50 am	What's new with Movento?	Jen Weston, Technical Support Representative, Bayer CropScience
11:00 am	Talking To a Skeptical Society About Pesticide Safety	Dr. Steve Savage, Cirrus Partners, Evergreen, Colorado
2:00 pm	Emerging insect problems in Ontario	Hannah Fraser, OMAFRA, Vineland, Ontario
2:30 pm	Vegetable Weed Management Update	Dr. Darren Robinson, Ridgetown Campus – University of Guelph
3:00 pm	Tomato Late blight: Current Situation and Future Potential	Dr. Meg McGrath, Long Island Horticultural Research & Extension Center, Cornell University, Riverhead, New York
3:30 pm	36 Yrs of Observations of Bulb Nematode on Garlic	Dr. Fred Crowe, Fred Crowe Consulting, Washington

